

May 23, 2018 – June 03, 2018

Silver Comet Amateur Radio Society - W4RSC

will operate as Special Event Station

W4T

celebrating the 10th anniversary of the public opening of the

SILVER COMET TRAIL

The Silver Comet Trail is a multi-use path for bicycling, running, walking, and skating near Atlanta, Georgia. The Silver Comet Trail is a 61.5 mile, 12 feet wide, car-free concrete path that connects the Smyrna, Georgia (NW of Atlanta) to the Chief Ladiga trail at the Georgia-Alabama state line. Started: July 1998 – Completed: August 2008

On-The-Air: 0001 UTC MAY 23rd to 2359 UTC JUNE 3rd

(Operator availability permitting)

Where? 160, 80, 40, 30, 20, 17, 15, 10, & 6 meter bands.
2 & 440 simplex (as band conditions permit)

Please Spot Us

Modes: SSB, CW or Digital (RTTY, Olivia, JT65 & FT8)

Exchange: Call sign, Name, RST, (Grid & QTH optional)

Info: www.silvercometars.com or WB4QOJ 146.955 Rptr

Visit us: See us operate. Bring a copy of your license & you may get on the air.

May 28th Dawn to Dusk at the Hiram Trailhead Bicycle Rental Facility.

June 2nd & 3rd – Dawn to Dusk at the Main Pavilion, Rockmart Trailhead, City Park in downtown Rockmart.

Rules

(Also available at www.silvercometars.com)

1. Calling stations must provide name, signal report, & grid square (QTH optional). FT8/JT65 use standard pro-forma exchange.
2. All contacts received will be verified by the SCARS special event committee.
3. All contacts received will be entered into LoTW by the SCARS special event committee.
4. All request for W4T certificates and QSL cards must contain the correct time (UTC), frequency and grid square for verification of the contact.
5. All requests for W4T certificates must be accompanied by $5.00 USD cash to cover printing, handling and return postage per certificate. QSL card included at no extra charge.
6. All requests for W4T QSL cards must include your QSL card or Post Card displaying your call sign and the correct time (UTC), frequency, grid square and a SASE. No SASE, No QSL.
7. All certificate and QSL request should be sent to:

The Silver Comet Amateur Radio Society
Silver Comet Trail Special Event W4T
P.O. 1873
Hiram, GA 30141

Depending on the number of contacts made, certificates and QSL cards should be returned in 3-5 weeks. If you have not received your certificate or QSL in 5 weeks, please contact K4BBH@ARRL.NET or the address above.